DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This building, at the corner of Calvert and Chase Sts., is three stories-high, four bays wide, and has a bow window on the left which contains three rectangular, double hung windows with 1/1 lights surmounted by transoms on the first floor and two rectangular windows symmetrically placed on the second and third stories of the bow.

Four stone steps lead to a transomed recessed door which is ornamented by two Ionic columns creating a portico. The first story double hung, rectangular windows, to the right of the door, have 1/1 lights and are surmounted by leaded glass transoms. Splayed brick, flat arched lintels cap the second story windows. The third story windows are underlined by a continuous brown stone belt course and are decorated and separated by recessed, rectangular brick panels.

The buliding is crowned by a wooden cornice with a row of egg and dart dentils.
